Support in Remembering

Members of the Bereavement Ministry here at Immaculate Conception are acutely aware that the early days of summer can be bittersweet, or even painful, for those navigating Mother's Day, Memorial Day, and Father's Day after the loss of a loved one. If these weeks are challenging for you, and you would like to make sure your loved one is not only honored but remembered, please consider joining us in church for a Remembering Service on Sunday, June 11 at 3:00 p.m.

In memory of our mothers, fathers, veterans, and others who have passed away, we will share a short memorial service. We will then have an opportunity to tell stories about these very special people and how their presence made a difference in our lives. Everyone who attends is encouraged to bring a memento, such as a picture, card, or small item to share with the group and aid in the storytelling.

Grief in death is reciprocal to love in life, and the greater the love, often the stronger the grief. Grief is a burden that is incredibly personal, but it can be shared and borne together. Whether you have a loved one to honor and a story to share, or you are simply interested in supporting those who mourn, consider spending an hour in the afternoon with us in church on June 11.

~Your friends on the Bereavement Committee

ROOTED IN THE GOSPEL OF CHRIST AND IN THE TRADITION OF CATHOLICISM AND UNDER THE PATRONAGE OF MARY IMMACULATE, WE COMMIT OURSELVES TO BE A WELCOMING COMMUNITY OF FAITH, WORSHIPPING WITH GENERATIONS OF BELIEVERS AND SERVING GOD IN ALL PEOPLE.

Pope Francis Says...

Exposure to atmospheric pollutants produces a broad spectrum of health hazards, especially for the poor, and causes millions of deaths. What can I do? – Don't idle in the carpool lane – the emissions are bad for children and adults. (LS 14)

Discipleship Corner...

We have all experienced genuine, true love in our lives. It may be our love for our parents, or love for our own children. I can draw on that experience in learning how I am to love others. Jesus tells me I am to love everyone, my enemy as well as someone I truly cherish. For a lot of good reasons, I may have a tough time loving certain people in my life. But I need to try to love them with the same love that I have for everyone. Want to know how to love someone who seems unlovable? Think about the way God loves me.

God Calling: Vocation Awareness

On May 26th, we celebrated the feast day of Saint Philip Neri. He lived his life filled with laughter and joy while trying to help reform the Catholic Church, in particular the Catholic clergy of the sixteenth century. It was a tough job then (as priesthood is today) but very rewarding. Perhaps God is calling you to church ministry as a sister, brother or priest. God doesn't guarantee that a vocation to the church will be easy, but it will be rewarding!

GOD IS LOVE

Reflection on John 3:16-18

St. Paul, in today's reading from Second Corinthians, sums up the mystery of the Trinity in words that we use as the greeting at every Mass: "The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with all of you." What a powerful greeting! Everything that follows this greeting is done in the names of these three persons in one God.

The essence of God is relationship. St. John tells us that "God is love." Since love needs somewhere to come from and somewhere to go, God is three in one.

We, who are created in the image and likeness of God, are then caught up into the mystery of the Trinity, and we reflect and show forth this beautiful mystery of the Holy Trinity in the myriad of ways that ordinary Christians express love in their daily lives.

SAINT BONIFACE

Feast Day: June 5

Patron Saint of: Germany

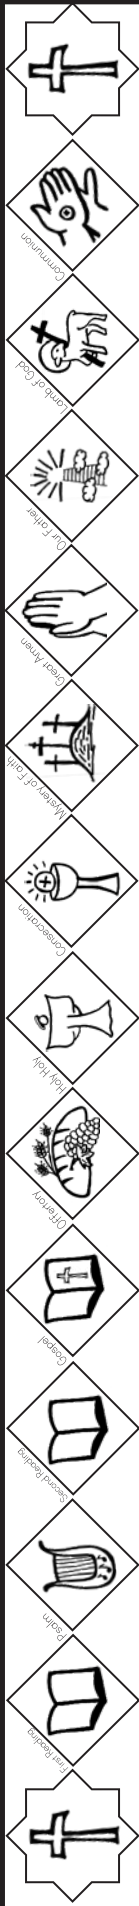

Boniface, known as the apostle of the Germans, was an English Benedictine monk who gave up being elected abbot to devote his life to the conversion of the Germanic tribes. Two characteristics stand out: his Christian orthodoxy and his fidelity to the pope of Rome.

How absolutely necessary this orthodoxy and fidelity were is borne out by the conditions Boniface found on his first missionary journey in 719 at the request of Pope Gregory II. Paganism was a way of life. What Christianity he did find had either lapsed into paganism or was mixed with error. The clergy were mainly responsible for these latter conditions since they were in many instances uneducated, lax and questionably obedient to their bishops. In particular instances their very ordinations were questionable.

These are the conditions that Boniface was to report in 722 on his first return visit to Rome. The Holy Father instructed him to reform the German Church. The pope sent letters of recommendation to religious and civil leaders. Boniface later admitted that his work would have been unsuccessful without a letter of safe-conduct from Charles Martel, the Frankish ruler, grandfather of Charlemagne. Boniface was finally made a regional bishop and authorized to organize the whole German Church. He was eminently successful. During a final mission to the Frisians, Boniface and 53 companions were massacred while he was preparing converts for confirmation.

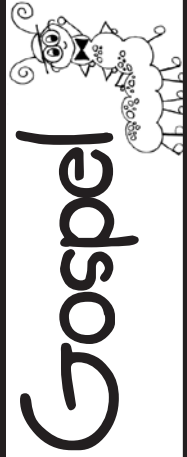

Boniface bears out the Christian rule: To follow Christ is to follow the way of the cross. For Boniface, it was not only physical suffering or death, but the painful, thankless, bewildering task of Church reform. Missionary glory is often thought of in terms of bringing new persons to Christ. It seems—but is not—less glorious to heal the household of the faith.
