Share Your Faith: PSR Catechists & Aides Needed

Love sharing your love of God? Our Parish School of Religion (PSR) needs people like you! Catechists and aides spend an hour Wednesday evenings during the school year making sure our Columbia Eagles (grades K-8) grow in love and faith. It’s a great way to learn more yourself, as you hand on the faith to others. Check the parish website for the PSR Volunteer application, or email Rebecca Husman at rhusman@iccmil.org.

Discipleship

Our bishop, Michael McGovern, recently recommended four habits to become a better witness for Jesus and the Gospel in our lives. First, reclaim Sunday as the Lord’s Day with a focus on the Eucharist, leisure time, and family. Second, make a commitment to pray at least fifteen minutes each day. Third, go to confession once each month. Fourth, embrace Jesus and his cross each Friday of the year through some work of mercy, charity, or penance. By embracing these “four holy habits” the Christian life can change for the better and become more attractive to others seeking richness and meaning in their lives

Vocations

The Lord is calling. Are you listening? The best way to know if God is calling you to be a priest, permanent deacon or religious sister or brother, is simply to ask! For the unmarried members of our Immaculate Conception parish, here is a prayer to help you with your discernment: Lord, my God and my loving Father, You have made me to know You, to love You, to serve You and thereby to find and fulfill my deepest longings. I know that You are in all things, and that every path can lead me to You. But of them all, there is one especially by which You want me to come to You. Since I will do what You want of me, I pray You, send your Holy Spirit to me: into my mind, to show me what You want of me; into my heart, to give me the determination to do it, and to do it with all my love, with all my mind, and with all of my strength right to the end. Jesus, I trust in You. Amen.

PRAYER SHAWLS AVAILABLE!

Do you know someone who needs prayers? Why not bring them some comfort with a handmade Prayer Shawl, from our Prayer Shawl Ministry? Each Shawl will wrap your loved one in the prayers of our parish! Even during this vastly different time with COVID, we can get your loved one a Prayer Shawl. We deliver in sanitized bags and will leave on a porch or you can still pick up at the office during office hours. Call Marsha Narzinski at 314-517-4927 or the Parish Office at 618-281-5105.

Facilitators: Kathy Daniels and Maria Renner.

How are we being called to address poverty? What tools does my Catholic faith have to offer? With Pope Francis’ The Joy of the Gospel as a foundational document of this program, participants will emerge with a transformed understanding of who they are as God’s child and how God is calling them to use their lives. To register, go to <https://justfaith.org/faith-and-poverty-a-biblical-response-catholic-version-st-louis-fall-2023-small-group-immaculate-conception-columbia-il/>. Facilitators: Sr. Marcia Kruse and Carol Waide.

How do we care for our common home? This 8-session program explores our connection with the land and our responsibility for it. With Pope Francis’ encyclical Laudato Si as a foundational document, participants learn how food and farming practices affect the climate crisis, marginalized communities, and their own health and spiritual well-being. The group explores practical ways to support, advocate for, and implement sustainable food and farming practices in the communities and the institutions of which they’re a part. NATIONAL SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF THE SNOWS – VISITORS CENTER

Journey to Nicaea: The Evolution of Christianity from Gospel to Creed

Presenter: Mark Etling, PhD

Saturday, September 2 – 10:00 a.m.-Noon

The first four centuries of the Christian era saw an incredible evolution – from a tiny movement in Israel to a vast, thriving institution in much of the Roman Empire. In its earliest days, the Christian movement was a disorganized network of communities with no Bible, no central authority, and no unified system of beliefs. But by the year 400, the Church had adopted a universal statement of faith – the Nicene Creed. In this three-part series, we will explore Christianity's historical and theological journey from Jerusalem to Nicaea.

Cost: $10.00 per session/$30.00 for the series.

For more information, call 618-394-6281. Register online at <https://snows.org>.

ENCOUNTERING GOD

Reflection on Matthew 17:1-9

Peter, James and John had no doubt experienced Jesus in many mundane moments – sharing a meal, walking together along the road, relaxing after a busy day, and the many other actions that make up daily life. Now, they encounter Jesus in a mountaintop moment – an explosion of light and awareness revealing the awesome beauty and truth of who Jesus is: the fulfillment of the law (Moses) and the prophets (Elijah); the fulfillment of every human desire.

How often do we, like these disciples, wish to “stay in” these mountaintop moments (“Lord, it is good that we are here...[let’s] make three tents...”). I have encountered some Christians who spend much of their energy seeking out these mountaintop moments; I call them “spiritual thrill seekers.” But Jesus always beckons us to follow Him back down the mountain, to the valley and the mundane, where we encounter Jesus daily in the ordinary.

The irony that I have discovered is that every “mundane,” “ordinary” moment holds a potential for an encounter with Jesus that can pack as much punch as any mountaintop moment. For example, oftentimes liturgical ministers will ask me, as the presider before Mass, if there is anything special about today’s liturgy. You bet there is! In the ordinary elements of bread and wine, Jesus Himself deigns to become present to us, body and spirit, to nourish and transform us! Truly a mountaintop in the ordinary!

~ Fr. Jay

SAINT DOMINIC

Feast Day: August 8

Patron Saint of: Astronomers

Born in old Castile, Spain, Dominic was trained for the priesthood by a priest-uncle, studied the arts and theology, and became a canon of the cathedral at Osma, where there was an attempt to revive the apostolic common life described in Acts of the Apostles.

On a journey through France with his bishop, Dominic came face to face with the then virulent Albigensian heresy at Languedoc. The Albigensians—or Cathari, “the pure ones”—held to two principles—one good, one evil—in the world. All matter is evil—hence they denied the Incarnation and the sacraments. On the same principle, they abstained from procreation and took a minimum of food and drink. The inner circle led what some people regarded as a heroic life of purity and asceticism not shared by ordinary followers.

Dominic sensed the need for the Church to combat this heresy, and was commissioned to be part of the preaching crusade against it. He saw immediately why the preaching crusade was not succeeding: the ordinary people admired and followed the ascetical heroes of the Albigenses. Understandably, they were not impressed by the Catholic preachers who traveled with horse and retinues, stayed at the best inns and had servants. Dominic therefore, with three Cistercians, began itinerant preaching according to the Gospel ideal. He continued this work for 10 years, being successful with the ordinary people but not with the leaders.

His fellow preachers gradually became a community, and in 1215 Dominic founded a religious house at Toulouse, the beginning of the Order of Preachers or Dominicans.
