Wrap-up and What's Ahead for IC PSR

Welcome Summer! What an amazing year we had. Thank you for making my first year as Coordinator for our Parish School of Religion (PSR) such a blessing. I enjoyed learning and growing with all of you this year. I have enjoyed all the milestones: our Bible Blessing, First Reconciliation, Advent Journey, First Eucharist, and Confirmation. I am excited to see where next year takes us.

"All your children shall be taught by the Lord, and great shall be the peace of your children." (Isaiah 54:13)

PSR is an extension of our Faith. We bring our children to Faith so that they may learn Who they belong to. When you baptized your children, you began a journey for them, a journey on which you lead them by your actions. As their parents, you are their first teachers, and they look to you for the why. You show them the why by bringing them to Church, reading your Bibles together, enrolling them in PSR; all of these demonstrate the importance of God in our lives. We lead by example and action, and our PSR catechists build on the foundation you lay down. The best gift we can give our children is a relationship with God, and we are privileged to partner with you to reveal our amazing God.

"I have no greater joy than to hear that my children are walking in the truth." (3 John 1:4)

I would especially like to thank our Catechists and Aides this past year: Michelle Franke, Rita Wallace, Pat Dougherty, Barb Greenfield, Beth Kutterer-Sanchez, William Sasser, Debbie Row, Natalie Smith, Betsy Amoroso, Tom Braun, Sarah Kolweier, Mike Schaefer, Beth Johns, Sharon Nealon, Julie Ninnis, Mike Hollman, Kim Schwaegel-Wiskamp, Victoria Rose, Lizanne Young, and Kelly Faulkner. Without your help this job would be impossible, and a lot less fun.

As we look forward to next year, there will be some changes, including moving our sessions to Sunday mornings at 10:00 a.m. This decision has been in the works for a while, and while it will take adjustments, we believe it will be for the greater good of our students. Our first day in the fall will be Sunday, August 18, with Parent Orientation.

Thank you for all of your wonderful input this year. You continue to help form our program as our students continue to deepen their relationship with God.

~ Rebecca Husman, PSR Coordinator

Sacramental Information

Baptisms: Parents/guardians are asked to attend a Preparation Seminar scheduled on the second Sunday of the month after 9:00 a.m. Mass (approximately 10:00 a.m.) in the lower-level library. We celebrate Baptisms on the first Sunday of the month during any Mass, and the third Sunday of the month after the 11:00 a.m. Mass. (No Baptisms are scheduled during Lent.) Please call the office to schedule at 281-5105.

Weddings: The parish is happy to celebrate the Sacrament of Holy Matrimony with adults who are currently registered members of Immaculate Conception Church (bride or groom). If you are one of many who would like to “come home” to celebrate the Sacrament with family and friends, please provide the name of the parish where you are now a member, along with contact information. We ask that you contact the IC Parish Office a minimum of four months prior to Marriage, but in most cases couples will need to allow time for Pre-Cana formation, and we suggest beginning to plan your Sacrament 12 or 18 months prior to Marriage.

Anointing of the Sick & Funerals: Since individual needs differ, please contact the Parish Office at 281-5105 for pastoral care. Do not hesitate to call; we are grateful for the opportunity to open our hearts to you and your family and offer these sacramental services.

RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults): The RCIA is for everyone who has been drawn by God to form a deeper relationship. Wherever you are in your faith practice – baptized in another Christian faith, starting from the beginning, or simply enriching your Catholic practice – consider the RCIA. Get to know God better and find out what it means to be Catholic. We meet in the Parish Office on Sundays (September-Easter), starting with “Breaking Open the Word” dismissal from 9:00 a.m. Mass, and catechetical sessions from 10:00-11:30 a.m. Contact Lizanne Young at the Parish Office at 281-5105, ext. 354, or email lyoung@iccmil.org.

Reconciliation: Reconciliation is offered from 4:00-4:30 p.m. on Saturdays and by appointment.

HEALTHCARE DIRECTIVES

During an emergency or at the end of life, you may face questions about your medical treatment and not be able to answer them. You may assume your loved ones know what you would want, but that's not always true. In one study, people guessed nearly one out of three end-of-life decisions for their loved one incorrectly. Research shows that you are more likely to get the care you want if you have conversations about your future medical treatment and put a plan in place. It may also help your loved ones grieve more easily and feel less burden, guilt, and depression.

What is advance care planning?

Advance care planning involves discussing and preparing for future decisions about your medical care if you become seriously ill or unable to communicate your wishes. Having meaningful conversations with your loved ones is the most important part of advance care planning. Many people also choose to put their preferences in writing by completing legal documents called advance directives.

What are advance directives?

Advance directives are legal documents that provide instructions for medical care and only go into effect if you cannot communicate your own wishes. The two most common advance directives for health care are the living will and the durable power of attorney for health care.

- Living will: A living will is a legal document that tells doctors how you want to be treated if you cannot make your own decisions about emergency treatment. In a living will, you can say which common medical treatments or care you would want, which ones you would want to avoid, and under which conditions each of your choices applies.
- Durable power of attorney for health care: A durable power of attorney for health care is a legal document that names your health care proxy, a person who can make health care decisions for you if you are unable to communicate these yourself. Your proxy, also known as a representative, surrogate, or agent, should be familiar with your values and wishes. A proxy can be chosen in addition to or instead of a living will. Having a health care proxy helps you plan for situations that cannot be foreseen, such as a serious car accident or stroke.

Think of your advance directives as living documents that you review at least once each year and update if a major life event occurs such as retirement, moving out of state, or a significant change in your health.

Who needs an advance care plan?

Advance care planning is not just for people who are very old or ill. At any age, a medical crisis could leave you unable to communicate your own health care decisions. Planning now for your future health care can help ensure you get the medical care you want and that someone you trust will be there to make decisions for you.

What happens if you do not have an advance directive? If you do not have an advance directive and you are unable to make decisions on your own, the state laws where you live will determine who may make medical decisions on your behalf. This is typically your spouse, your parents if they are available, or your children if they are adults. If you are unmarried and have not named your partner as your proxy, it's possible they could be excluded from decision-making. If you have no family members, some states allow a close friend who is familiar with your values to help. Or they may assign a physician to represent your best interests. To find out the laws in your state, contact your state legal aid office or state bar association.

Will an advance directive guarantee your wishes are followed?

An advance directive is legally recognized but not legally binding. This means that your health care provider and proxy will do their best to respect your advance directives, but there may be circumstances in which they cannot follow your wishes exactly. For example, you may be in a complex medical situation where it is unclear what you would want. Talking with your loved ones ahead of time may help them better navigate unanticipated issues. Contact your attorney to find out more about advance care planning and the various legal forms.

Pope Francis Says...

If we acknowledge the value and the fragility of nature and, at the same time, our God-given abilities, we can finally leave behind the modern myth of unlimited progress. A fragile world, entrusted by God to human care, challenges us to devise intelligent ways of directing, developing and limiting our power. (LS 78)

What can I do? Make a list of stupid and intelligent ways of developing our city, country, world. Compare with someone else's and talk about it.

OUR CAMPAIGN PRAYER

Heavenly Father, You have created us in Your own image, to love, serve and honor You with our lives. You have tasked us with building Your Church, and passing from one generation to the next the treasure trove of our faith. Bless the work of our hands as we undertake our next phase in serving You. Keep us strong in faith, hope, and love, so that all we do may bring glory and honor to You, forever and ever.

AMEN

Discipleship

“Jesus is waiting for you in the chapel. Go and find him when your strength and patience are giving out, when you feel lonely and helpless. Say to him: ‘You know well what is happening, my dear Jesus. I have only you. Come to my aid...’ And then go your way. And don't worry about knowing how you are going to manage. It is enough to have told our good Lord. He has an excellent memory.”

– Saint Jeanne Jugan

Finish the dot-to-dot to draw a Bible.

The Bible is full of stories of God's miracles.

Draw a picture of a miracle in the Bible.

Jesus performed many miracles. Some people said that He was working for Satan. Jesus taught that He works against Satan and reminded us to turn to God for help.
