Please join us! Women's ACTS Retreat October 17-20, 2024

Ladies ages 18 and up, you are invited to share an ACTS Retreat weekend!

This retreat, under the leadership of parishioners just like you, offers the opportunity to renew your spirituality, strengthen your faith and its application to your daily life, and build and deepen lasting friendships throughout your parish community.

Every once in a while, we need to consider:

- + Where is my path in life going?
- + What do I want for my life?
- + What is truly important to me?

What are YOU looking for in your life?

- + A closer relationship with God?
- + More meaning in your life?
- + Closer relationships with your family members?
- + To make new and closer relationships with the people in your parish?

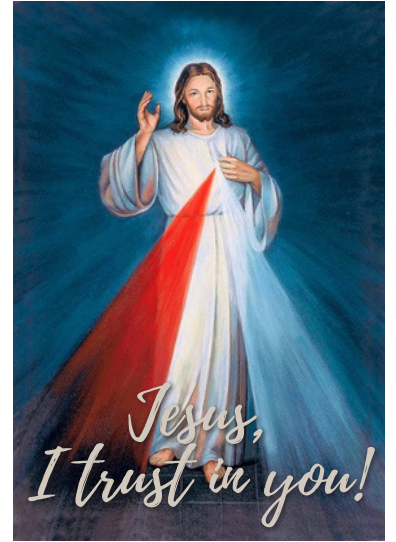

The ACTS weekend inspires, encourages, challenges, and so much more. It is put on by lay people for lay people. Through this weekend, you will get to know others in your parish and local community who are searching for the same things you are. Won't you join them on the journey?

The retreat begins on Thursday evening with check-in at 6:30 p.m. at Immaculate Conception Church. Transportation to and from the Retreat Center (Kings House at the Shrine of Our Lady of the Snows in Belleville) is provided. A minimum deposit of $50.00 is requested to reserve your space, with the balance due at check-in Thursday. The full amount for single occupancy is $345.00, or you may request to room with a designated friend for $265.00 per person. Please do not let financial hardship stand in the way of attending this retreat. Financial assistance is available confidentially by reaching out to IC Pastor Fr. Steve Thoma, C.R., at 618-281-5105 or in person. Your retreat director can also guide you to assistance.

If you have any questions about this upcoming retreat, pick up a brochure and registration form in the Gathering Space, and you may also reach out to your team leaders:

- Director: Libby Nolan, 314-393-6096, or libby.nolan@yahoo.com
- Co-Director: Angela Burns, 618-567-6793, or bunchaburnses@gmail.com

Take a leap of faith! Put yourself in the hands of God through the hands of others, and enjoy some quality time with Jesus, away from the busy-ness of every day. Embrace the journey. You'll be glad you did!

ROOTED IN THE GOSPEL OF CHRIST AND IN THE TRADITION OF CATHOLICISM AND UNDER THE PATRONAGE OF MARY IMMACULATE, WE COMMIT OURSELVES TO BE A WELCOMING COMMUNITY OF FAITH, WORSHIPPING WITH GENERATIONS OF BELIEVERS AND SERVING GOD IN ALL PEOPLE.

Welcome New Parishioners

If you are new to our parish and reside within the parish boundaries, and would like to be members, please call the Parish Office at 618-281-5105, and our secretary will be happy to help make that happen!

Sacramental Information

Baptisms: Parents/guardians are asked to attend a Preparation Seminar scheduled on the second Sunday of the month after 9:00 a.m. Mass (approximately 10:00 a.m.) in the lower-level library. We celebrate Baptisms on the first Sunday of the month during any Mass, and the third Sunday of the month after the 11:00 a.m. Mass. (No Baptisms are scheduled during Lent.) Please call the office to schedule at 281-5105.

Weddings: The parish is happy to celebrate the Sacrament of Holy Matrimony with adults who are currently registered members of Immaculate Conception Church (bride or groom). If you are one of many who would like to “come home” to celebrate the Sacrament with family and friends, please provide the name of the parish where you are now a member, along with contact information. We ask that you contact the IC Parish Office a minimum of four months prior to Marriage, but in most cases couples will need to allow time for Pre-Cana formation, and we suggest beginning to plan your Sacrament 12 or 18 months prior to Marriage.

Anointing of the Sick & Funerals: Since individual needs differ, please contact the Parish Office at 281-5105 for pastoral care. Do not hesitate to call; we are grateful for the opportunity to open our hearts to you and your family and offer these sacramental services.

RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults): The RCIA is for everyone who has been drawn by God to form a deeper relationship. Wherever you are in your faith practice – baptized in another Christian faith, starting from the beginning, or simply enriching your Catholic practice – consider the RCIA. Get to know God better and find out what it means to be Catholic. We meet in the Parish Office on Sundays (September-Easter), starting with “Breaking Open the Word” dismissal from 9:00 a.m. Mass, and catechetical sessions from 10:00-11:30 a.m. Contact Lizanne Young at the Parish Office at 281-5105, ext. 354, or email lyoung@iccmil.org.

Reconciliation: Reconciliation is offered from 4:00-4:30 p.m. on Saturdays and by appointment.

WILLS AND LIVING TRUSTS

In the world of estate planning, Wills and Living Trusts often take center stage because they are the most common documents used to pass assets after one's death. They are similar, yet different – kind of like siblings, but without all the fighting. Both are legal tools that transfer your property to those you love. The main difference is that one can be effective while you are still alive and the other goes into effect only after you die. There are a few more important distinctions you should know about. Let's go over each one, starting with the basics, so you can decide what's best for you.

What Is a Will?

A Will is a legal document that explains what you want to have happen when you die – and puts it all in writing. It outlines things like who you want to get your property, your money, and guardianship of your kids or pets. The important thing to note about a Will is that it does not avoid the probate process, which is a common misconception. When you die, the person(s) you've named as Personal Representative (a.k.a. Executor), must present your Will to the court in the county where you reside at death and ask the judge to recognize your Will as valid and grant what are known as "letters testamentary" to the person(s) you've named. It is only then that your Personal Representative has the legal authority to administer the terms of your Will.

What Is a Living Trust?

A living trust is a legal document that governs what happens to your assets during your lifetime as well as at death, quickly and easily. It's referred to as "living" because the Trust goes into effect while you're alive, as opposed to a Will, which only becomes effective at your death. You can transfer things like bank or savings accounts, cars, real estate, art, jewelry and even intellectual property (like your novel manuscript) into a Living Trust. There are several significant advantages that a Living Trust provides that a Will does not. Those include incapacity planning – your Trustee (i.e. the person(s) you've designated to manage trust assets after you can no longer do it yourself) can manage your trust assets for you if you become incapacitated; privacy – the actions taken under a Living Trust are private between your Trustee and your beneficiaries; and probate avoidance – a Living Trust if properly funded will avoid the probate process, where a Will does not. Also Living Trusts, just like Wills, can be changed or completely rewritten as many times as you determine necessary prior to your incapacity or death. When a Living Trust is used as the primary estate planning document, a Will is still recommended to "catch" any property that was not placed in your Living Trust prior to your death, and to then add that property to your Trust at that time.

OUR CAMPAIGN PRAYER

*Heavenly Father, You have created us in Your own image, to love, serve and honor You with our lives. You have tasked us with building Your Church, and passing from one generation to the next the treasure trove of our faith. Bless the work of our hands as we undertake our next phase in serving You. Keep us strong in faith, hope, and love, so that all we do may bring glory and honor to You, forever and ever.
AMEN.*

Pope Francis Says...

The mindset which leaves no room for sincere concern for the environment is the same mindset which lacks concern for the inclusion of the most vulnerable members of society. (Laudato Si 196)

What can I do? Since the overabundance of plastics greatly affects future generations and poorer countries, try to fast from plastics for a week, or a month. See how much we can do without.

JUST FAITH CLASS

You are invited to participate in the last of the three classes on the Climate, Sacred Water: Oceans and Ecosystems. Water is central both to our Christian theology and to our survival. Sacred Water: Oceans and Ecosystems guides small groups in discerning how they can better care for the earth's waters, as well as the creatures and communities who live in and around them.

Sr. Marcia Kruse, 618-570-4084, ASC, Faith Clark, 618-420-3164, and Carol Waide, 618-910-1648, will facilitate the 8 sessions which will begin September 18. Mark your calendars. If interested, you can register at <https://justfaith.org/product/sacred-water-immaculate-conception-catholic-church/>. You will need to set up an account in order to register. If you had one from last year you will need to set it up again, as a new system was put in place. Cost will be $35.00-$75.00. Our two previous classes have been well received. Come join in and learn how you can help.

Discipleship Corner

All of us are called to the vocations of holiness and evangelization. In addition, we are each personally called by God to the one of four vocational journeys which is most likely to give us happiness and sanctity. Many of us, upon hearing the word “vocations,” immediately think of the priesthood or, perhaps, the “religious” (or consecrated) life of “brothers” or “sisters.” Most of us, however, follow the vocations of single life or marriage. When properly discerned and followed, each of these vocations is good. Each vocation and the people contemplating or following them should be included in our prayers.

THE 2024 CATHOLIC SERVICE AND MINISTRY APPEAL

Serve the Lord with gladness – Psalm 100

Do you remember your or your children’s or, perhaps, your grandchildren’s first time away from home attending college? While greatly anticipated, it can also be a challenging, sometimes overwhelming experience. Today hundreds of young adults find a comfortable, secure, faith-based home during their college years as a “family” member of the Newman Catholic Student Center at Southern Illinois University. Your contribution to The Catholic Service and Ministry Appeal helps makes this experience possible. Partner with Newman’s students and staff by making your gift to The Appeal today!

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Please join us for Eucharistic Adoration on Tuesdays from 4:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. Spend some quiet time with the Lord.
