When You Pray: A Clear Path to a Deeper Relationship with God

You know that prayer is important but still find it challenging. Perhaps it's hard to find time, or you're unsure what to do when you pray. Or maybe you feel discouraged by your weaknesses and your inability to overcome them.

If you have any of these feelings, you are not alone. Many of the saints struggled in prayer. They were like us. But each time they fell, they got up again and learned to rely more on God's grace.

What God did in the lives of countless saints, he wants to do in the lives of ordinary people like us. And that's what this study is about: the journey of prayer God wants to take us on.

Join us for When You Pray: A Clear Path to a Deeper Relationship with God, beginning October 7th, 2024, from 7:00 p.m. to 8:15 p.m. and continuing every Monday for eight weeks. For more information or to register for the study, contact Joe Dent at 618-210-2003 or by email at joe@dentsoft.com.

Sacramental Information

Baptisms: Parents/guardians are asked to attend a Preparation Seminar scheduled on the second Sunday of the month after 9:00 a.m. Mass (approximately 10:00 a.m.) in the lower-level library. We celebrate Baptisms on the first Sunday of the month during any Mass, and the third Sunday of the month after the 11:00 a.m. Mass. (No Baptisms are scheduled during Lent.) Please call the office to schedule at 281-5105.

Weddings: The parish is happy to celebrate the Sacrament of Holy Matrimony with adults who are currently registered members of Immaculate Conception Church (bride or groom). If you are one of many who would like to “come home” to celebrate the Sacrament with family and friends, please provide the name of the parish where you are now a member, along with contact information. We ask that you contact the IC Parish Office a minimum of four months prior to Marriage, but in most cases couples will need to allow time for Pre-Cana formation, and we suggest beginning to plan your Sacrament 12 or 18 months prior to Marriage.

Anointing of the Sick & Funerals: Since individual needs differ, please contact the Parish Office at 281-5105 for pastoral care. Do not hesitate to call; we are grateful for the opportunity to open our hearts to you and your family and offer these sacramental services.

RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults): The RCIA is for everyone who has been drawn by God to form a deeper relationship. Wherever you are in your faith practice – baptized in another Christian faith, starting from the beginning, or simply enriching your Catholic practice – consider the RCIA. Get to know God better and find out what it means to be Catholic. We meet in the Parish Office on Sundays (September-Easter), starting with “Breaking Open the Word” dismissal from 9:00 a.m. Mass, and catechetical sessions from 10:00-11:30 a.m. Contact Lizanne Young at the Parish Office at 281-5105, ext. 354, or email lyoung@iccmil.org.

Reconciliation: Reconciliation is offered from 4:00-4:30 p.m. on Saturdays and by appointment.

WILLS AND LIVING TRUSTS

In the world of estate planning, Wills and Living Trusts often take center stage because they are the most common documents used to pass assets after one's death. They are similar, yet different – kind of like siblings, but without all the fighting. Both are legal tools that transfer your property to those you love. The main difference is that one can be effective while you are still alive and the other goes into effect only after you die. There are a few more important distinctions you should know about. Let's go over each one, starting with the basics, so you can decide what's best for you.

What Is a Will?

A Will is a legal document that explains what you want to have happen when you die – and puts it all in writing. It outlines things like who you want to get your property, your money, and guardianship of your kids or pets. The important thing to note about a Will is that it does not avoid the probate process, which is a common misconception. When you die, the person(s) you've named as Personal Representative (a.k.a. Executor), must present your Will to the court in the county where you reside at death and ask the judge to recognize your Will as valid and grant what are known as "letters testamentary" to the person(s) you've named. It is only then that your Personal Representative has the legal authority to administer the terms of your Will.

What Is a Living Trust?

A Living Trust is a legal document that governs what happens to your assets during your lifetime as well as at death, quickly and easily. It's referred to as "living" because the Trust goes into effect while you're alive, as opposed to a Will, which only becomes effective at your death. You can transfer things like bank or savings accounts, cars, real estate, art, jewelry and even intellectual property (like your novel manuscript) into a Living Trust. There are several significant advantages that a Living Trust provides that a Will does not. Those include incapacity planning – your Trustee (i.e. the person(s) you've designated to manage trust assets after you can no longer do it yourself) can manage your trust assets for you if you become incapacitated; privacy – the actions taken under a Living Trust are private between your Trustee and your beneficiaries; and probate avoidance – a Living Trust if properly funded will avoid the probate process, where a Will does not. Also Living Trusts, just like Wills, can be changed or completely rewritten as many times as you determine necessary prior to your incapacity or death. When a Living Trust is used as the primary estate planning document, a Will is still recommended to "catch" any property that was not placed in your Living Trust prior to your death, and to then add that property to your Trust at that time.

Pope Francis Says...

We can speak of the priority of being over that of being useful. (German Bishops' Conference 1980 as quoted by Pope Francis in Laudato Si 69)

What can I do? Name five things you like that are not necessarily useful. What plants or animals add joy to your life though not "use-ful."

JUST FAITH CLASS

You are invited to participate in the last of the three classes on the Climate, Sacred Water: Oceans and Ecosystems. Water is central both to our Christian theology and to our survival. Sacred Water: Oceans and Ecosystems guides small groups in discerning how they can better care for the earth's waters, as well as the creatures and communities who live in and around them.

Sr. Marcia Kruse, 618-570-4084, ASC, Faith Clark, 618-420-3164, and Carol Waide, 618-910-1648, will facilitate the 8 sessions which will begin September 18. Mark your calendars. If interested, you can register at <https://justfaith.org/product/sacred-water-immaculate-conception-catholic-church/>. You will need to set up an account in order to register. If you had one from last year you will need to set it up again, as a new system was put in place. Cost will be $35.00-$75.00. Our two previous classes have been well received. Come join in and learn how you can help.

WOMEN'S ACTS

ACTS RETREAT

TESTIMONIAL

"What Is It that Makes the Retreat Such a Life Changing Experience?"

"My ACTS experience started like most others. My neighbor and a good friend kept inviting me to attend a retreat. I had all the excuses, "my children needed me at home," "I was too busy at work," and "I am not religious enough to attend a retreat." My life was too hectic, and I did not need "one more thing to do." I told my neighbor I just needed some peace and quiet. My friend smiled and said, "The retreat can help you find that peace." I reluctantly said "yes" and attended my first retreat.

Well, my friend was correct, I found peace during that retreat. I remember not feeling alone in this new community. I was reassured that God was with me during all the chaos, and I discovered new and simple ways to incorporate prayer into my everyday life, which helps me find more peace.

Looking back over my past retreats, I see how these retreats have become milestones in my spiritual journey. Each a stepping-stone towards a more faith-filled, centered, and grounded version of myself. The chaos still exists, but now, I navigate it with God and a deepened sense of peace, love, and hope.

Gospel

The Pharisees asked Jesus why the disciples didn't follow the old church rules about washing their hands. Jesus told them that people become unclean because of dirtiness in their hearts, not on their hands. People should try to keep their hearts close to Jesus.
