What Are We Learning?

- 3rd Continuing with the Old Testament we learned about who Abraham and Isaac were and why Abraham's willingness to sacrifice his only son foreshadowed Jesus sacrifice for all of us. We worked on the components of the mass and how the readings and the gospel are intertwined with a theme. The priest prepares his homily to make them relatable to the our everyday lives. We played a sit/stand/kneel game. Ask your child why we make a sign of the cross on our forehead, lips, and heart before the gospel.

Faith Reflection

First Reading

Deuteronomy 6:2-6

Second Reading

Hebrews 7:23-28

Gospel Reading

Mark 12:28b-34

As Christians, our moral behavior is guided by the two-part commandment taught by Jesus in today's Gospel: love God and love your neighbor as yourself. Many of us learned to use this framework as an examination of conscience. By examining our lives through the lens of these commandments, we have learned that the challenge of these commandments is not in our desire to follow them but in our capacity to consistently honor these commandments in our daily lives.
