A Pumpkin Prayer

Father in heaven, like a farmer, you have watched me grow
And picked me out from all the rest to house your light and glow.

Open my mind to think of you. Open my mouth to sing.
Open my eyes to see your world and share the joy you bring.

Open my heart to be your home—a warm and welcome shell,
Washed clean of sin. A place wherein your love and light may dwell.

Faith Reflection

First Reading

Sirach 35:12-14,16-18

Second Reading

2 Timothy 4:6-8,16-18

Gospel Reading

Luke 18:9-14

In the family, one sometimes observes a level of competition between children for parent attention, for acknowledgement of their abilities. Somehow, children seem to internalize that the attention given to one member of the family diminishes the attention given to another. In this way, children can often sound like the Pharisee in Jesus' parable. Parents who provide continual reminders to their children that they are loved for who they are, not for what they do, help children develop a healthy spirituality.
